(3) The Commissioner to whom an application is transferred under sub-rule (2) may continue the proceedings as if the previous proceedings or any part of them had been taken before him, if he is satisfied that the interests of the parties will not thereby be prejudiced.

23. Examination of applicant.—(1) On receiving an application of the nature referred to in section 22, the Commissioner may examine the applicant on oath, or may send the application to any officer authorised by the Administrator in this behalf and direct such officer to examine the applicant and his witnesses and forward the record thereof to the Commissioner.

(2) The substance of any examination made under sub-rule (1) shall be recorded in the manner provided for the recording of evidence in section 25.

24. (2) The mere dismissal of the application under sub-rule (1) shall not preclude the applicant from presenting a fresh application for the settlement of the same matter.

25. Preliminary inquiry into application.—If the application is not dismissed under rule 24, the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded, call upon the applicant to produce evidence in support of the application before calling upon any other party, to defend it and if upon considering such evidence, the Commissioner is of the opinion that there is no case for the relief claimed, he may dismiss the application with a brief statement of his reasons for so doing.

26. Notice to opposite party.—If the Commissioner does not dismiss the application under rule 24 or rule 25, he shall send to the party from whom the applicant claims relief (hereinafter referred to as "the opposite party") a copy of the application, together with a notice of the date on which he will dispose of the application, and may call upon the parties to produce on that date any evidence which they may wish to tender.

27. Appearance and Examination of opposite party.—(1) The opposite party may, and if so required by the Commissioner, shall at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Commissioner may permit, file a written statement dealing with the claim raised in the application, and any such written statement shall form part of the record.

(2) If the opposite party contests the claim, the Commissioner may, and, if no written statement has been filed, shall proceed to examine him upon the claim and shall reduce the examination to writing.

28. Framing of issues.—(1) After considering any written statement and the record of any examination of the parties, the Commissioner shall ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues upon which the right decision of the case appears to him to depend.

(2) In recording the issues, the Commissioner shall distinguish between those issues which in his opinion relate to questions of fact and those which relate to questions of law.

29. Power to postpone trial of issue of fact where issues of law arise.—When issues both of law and of fact arise in the same case, and the Commissioner is of the opinion that the case may be disposed of on the issues of law only, he may try those issues first and for that purpose may, if he thinks fit, postpone the determination of the issues of fact until after the issues of law have been determined.

30. Diary.—The Commissioner shall maintain under his hand a brief diary of the proceedings on an application.

31. Reasons for postponement to be recorded.—If the Commissioner is unable to dispose of an application at one hearing, he shall record the reasons which necessitate a postponement.

32. Judgement.—(1) The Commissioner shall, while passing orders, record concisely a judgement, his finding on each of the issues framed and his reasons for such finding.

(2) The Commissioner shall, at the time of signing and dating his judgement, pronounce his decision, and thereafter no addition or alteration shall be made to the judgement other than the correction of a clerical or arithmetical mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.

33. Summoning of witnesses.—If an application is presented by any party to the proceedings for the citation of witnesses the Commissioner shall, on payment of the requisite expenses and fees, issue summonses for the appearance of such witness, unless he considers that their appearance is not necessary for the just decision of the case.

34. Exemption from payment of costs.—If Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is unable, by reason of poverty, to pay the prescribed fees, he may remit any or all of such fees. If the case is decided, in favour of the applicant, the prescribed fees which, had they not been remitted, would have been due to be paid, may be added to the costs of the case and recovered in such manner as the Commissioner in his order regarding costs directs.

35. Right of entry for local inspection.—A Commissioner before whom any proceedings relating to an injury by accident is pending may at any time enter the place where the workman was injured, or where the workman ordinarily performed his work, for the purpose of making a local inspection or of examining any person likely to be able to give information relevant to the proceedings.

Provided that the Commissioner shall not enter any premises of any industrial establishment except during the ordinary working hours of that establishment, save with the permission of the employer or of some person directly responsible to him for the management of the establishment.

36. Procedure for local inspection.—(1) If the Commissioner proposes to conduct a local inspection with a view to examining on the spot the circumstances in which an accident took place, he shall give the parties or their representatives notice of his intention to do so, unless in his opinion the urgency of the case renders the giving of such notice impracticable.

(2) Such notice may be given orally or in writing, and in the case of an employer, may be given to any person upon whom notice of a claim can be served under sub-section (2) of section 10, or the representative of any such person. (3) Any party, or his representative may accompany the Commissioner at a local inspection.

(4) After making a local inspection the Commissioner shall note briefly in a memorandum any facts observed, and shall show the memorandum to any party who desires to see the same and on payment of the requisite fee shall supply any party with a copy thereof.

(5) The memorandum shall form part of the record.

37. Power of summary examination.—(1) The Commissioner may during a local inspection or at any other time, save at a formal hearing of a case pending before him examine summarily any person likely to be able to give information relative to such case. Whether such person has been, or is to be, called as a witness in the case or not, and whether any or all of the parties are present or not.

(2) No oath shall be administered to a person examined under sub-rule (1).

(3) A statement made by a person examined under sub-rule (1), if reduced to writing, shall not be signed by the person making the statement nor shall it, except as hereinafter provided, be incorporated in the record or utilised by the Commissioner for the purpose of arriving at a decision in the case.

(4) If a witness who has been examined under sub-rule (1) makes in his evidence any statement contradicting in material particulars any statement made by him in such examination and reduced to writing, the Commissioner may call his attention to such statement, and shall in that case direct that the parties be furnished with the relevant part of such statement for the purpose of using it in examining or cross examining the witness.

(5) Any statement or part of a statement which is furnished to the parties under sub-rule (4) shall be incorporated in the record.

(6) Where a case is settled by agreement between the parties, the Commissioner may incorporate in the record any statement made by a person examined under sub-rule (1) and may utilise such statement for the purpose of justifying his acceptance of, or refusal to accept, the agreement reached.

38. Agreement to abide by Commissioner's decision.—(1) If a party expresses in writing his willingness to abide by the decision of the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall ascertain whether the other party also is willing to abide.

(2) If the other party is so willing, the fact of his willingness shall be recorded in writing and the record thereof shall be signed by him.

(3) If the other party is not willing to abide by the Commissioner's decision, the party which had initially expressed his willingness to abide by the decision of the Commissioner shall not be bound so to abide.

39. Procedure where indemnity claimed under section 12(2).—(1) Where the opposite party claims that if compensation is recovered from him, he would be entitled, under sub-section (2) of section 12, to be indemnified by a person not being a party to the case, he shall, when first called upon to defend the application, present a notice of such claim to the Commissioner accompanied by the requisite fee, and the Commissioner shall thereupon issue a notice to such person in Form I.

(2) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Commissioner on the date fixed for the hearing of the case or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears, he shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings. If he does not so appear he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of any award which may be made against the opposite party and to have admitted his own liability to indemnify the opposite party for any compensation which may be recovered from him;

Provided that, if any person so served appears subsequently and satisfies the Commissioner that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Commissioner shall, after giving notice to the applicant and the aforesaid opposite party, hear such person, and may set aside or vary any award made against such person upon such terms as the Commissioner thinks just.

(3) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) whether or not he desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified, claims that being a contractor he is himself a principal and is entitled to be indemnified by a person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the workman could have recovered compensation, he shall on or before the date fixed in the notice under sub-rule (1) present a notice of such claim to the Commissioner accompanied by the requisite fee and the Commissioner shall thereupon issue notice to such person in Form M.

(4) If any person served with a notice under sub-rule (3) desired to contest the applicant's claim for compensation, or the claim under sub-rule (3) to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Commissioner on the date fixed in the notice in Form K or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears, shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings. If he does not so appear he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of any award which may be made against the original opposite party or the person served with a notice under sub-rule (1) and to have admitted his own liability to indemnify the party against whom such award is made for any compensation which may be recovered from him;

Provided that, if any person so served appears subsequently and satisfies the Commissioner that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Commissioner shall, after giving notice to all parties on the record, hear such person, and may set or vary any award made against such person upon such terms as the Commissioner thinks just.

(5) In any proceeding in which a notice has been served on any person under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (3), the Commissioner shall, if he awards compensation, record in his judgement a finding in respect of each of such persons, whether he is or is not liable to indemnify any of the opposite parties, and shall specify the party, if any, whom he is liable to indemnify.

40. Procedure in connected cases.—(1) Where two or more cases pending before a Commissioner arise out of the same accident, and any issue involved is common to two or more such cases, such cases may so far as the evidence bearing on such issue is concerned, be heard simultaneously.

(2) Where the procedure specified in sub-rule (1) is followed, the evidence bearing on a common issue shall be recorded in the proceedings of one case, and the Commissioner shall certify under his hand in the proceedings of any other such case, the extent to which the evidence so recorded applies to such other case, and the fact that the parties to such other case had the opportunity of being present, and, if they were present, of cross-examining the witnesses.

41. Certain provisions of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, apply—Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act of these rules, the following provisions of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in its application to the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli, namely, those contained in order V, rules 9 to 13 and 15 to 30, Order IX, rules 3 to 10; order XVI, rules 2 to 21, Order XVII, Order XXIII, rules 1 and 2 and Order XXVI, rules 1 to 8, shall apply to proceedings before a Commissioner, in so far as they may be applicable thereto;

Provided that—

(a) for the purpose of facilitating the application of the said provision the Commissioner may construct them in such manner without affecting the substance thereof, as may be necessary or proper in regard to the matter before him; and

(b) the Commissioner may, for sufficient reasons which shall be recorded, proceed otherwise than in accordance with the said provisions, if he is satisfied that the interests of the parties will not hereby be prejudiced.

42. Provision regarding Signature of Form.—Any Form, other than a receipt for compensation, which is by these rules required to be signed by a Commissioner may be signed under his direction and on his behalf by any officer subordinate to him appointed by him in writing for this purpose.

When new representative to be appointed.—If the Commissioner considers that the interests of any party for whom a representative has been appointed under rule 46 are not being adequately protected by that representative or if the person appointed to act as representative dies or becomes incapable of acting or otherwise ceases to set as such, the Commissioner shall appoint in his place another person who consents to the appointment.

PART VIII

same and shall issue a notice in writing in Form Q to the parties concerned.

Provided that, the notice may be communicated orally to any parties who are present at the time when notice in writing would otherwise issue.

(2) On the date so fixed, the Commissioner shall record the memorandum unless, after hearing any of the parties who appear and desires to be heard, he considers that it ought not to be recorded;

Provided that, the issue of a notice under sub-rule (1) shall not be deemed to prevent the Commissioner from refusing to record the memorandum on the date so fixed, even if no objection be made by any party concerned.

(3) If on such date the Commissioner decides that the memorandum ought not to be recorded he shall inform the parties present of his decision and of the reasons therefor, and if any party desiring the memorandum to be recorded is not present, he shall send the information to the party in Form B.

If information has not been given to all such parties, he shall proceed in accordance with rule 49.

(4) If, on the date so fixed, the Commissioner refuses to record the memorandum, he shall send a notice in Form R to any party who did not receive information under Sub-rule (1).

(3) Where the agreement is for the redemption of half-monthly payments by the payment of a lump sum, and the Commissioner considers that the memorandum of agreement should not be recorded by reason of the inadequacy of the amount of such sum as fixed in the agreement, he shall record his estimate of the probable duration of the disablement of the workman.

50. Registration of memorandum accepted for record. In recording a memorandum of agreement, the Commissioner shall cause the same to be entered in a register in Form V and shall cause an endorsement to be entered
